- If you wish to exercise your right to update or rectify your personal data, please do so via email: dpo@realworld.fi (where you must communicate all the elements necessary for us to access your request).

How long is your data stored?

The period of time for which data is stored and preserved varies according to the purpose for which the information is processed. Whenever there is no specific legal requirement, data will be stored and retained only for the minimum period necessary for the purposes that motivated its collection or subsequent processing, after which it will be deleted.

Is your data treated securely?

RealWorld is committed to ensuring the protection and security of your data.

To this end, it has adopted several security measures of a technical and organizational nature in order to protect the personal data against its dissemination, loss, misuse, alteration, unauthorized processing or access, as well as against any other form of illicit treatment.

RealWorld requires its subcontractors and partners to adopt security measures equivalent to those it practices.

Notwithstanding the security measures practiced by RealWorld, the user/client must adopt additional security measures. That is to ensure that you use equipment and a browser that is up to date in terms of properly configured security, with an active firewall, antivirus and anti-spyware, and confirm the authenticity of the websites you visit on the Internet, avoiding websites whose reputation you do not trust.

Communications

RealWorld recognizes that it may communicate User data within the scope of merger, acquisition and/or incorporation processes in which it is involved, and this communication is not considered a transfer of data to third parties.

RealWorld may also transmit data to third parties within the scope of investigations, inquiries and judicial and/or administrative proceedings of a similar nature, provided that it is duly ordered to do so by a court order to that effect.

Data Transfer

Data transfers may occur between countries with different data protection regimes.

That includes countries that do not belong to the European Union or the European Economic Area. RealWorld will comply with the law, particularly with regard to the suitability of the destination country in terms of the protection of personal data and the requirements that are applicable to these transfers, and personal data will not be transferred to jurisdictions that do not offer broad guarantees of security and protection.

Changes to Privacy Policies

RealWorld reserves the right, at any time and without prior notice, to update and review the Privacy Policies set out in this document in order to adjust them to possible legislative changes and other conditions, with these changes being duly published on this website .
